Everest Flight(Optional), Walking tour of Kathmandu Durbar square

Today you experience something most people never will, a flight to the Himalayas to see majestic Mount Everest and the more. The forty five minutes flight offers an incredible panorama and amazing view of Mount Everest. You can take a photograph of the world's highest mountain from the cockpit. You will be taken to the hotel for breakfast. After short rest you will set for a walking tour in Kathmandu Durbar square. Kathmandu Durbar Square is one of the important historic and tourist destinations in Nepal. The main attraction in the Kathmandu Durbar square is Hanuman Dhoka Palace. The striking place was named in honor of the monkey god, Hanuman. At the southern end of the Durbar Square there is the most curious attraction, the Kumari Chowk. You would be able to see a Kumari House, where the Living Goddess of Nepal resides. After exploring this place we will walk through Asan Bazaar to your hotel.

Visit Boudhanath, Pashupatinath temple & Patan

After breakfast visit the famous Fourteenth century Boudhanath Stupa, Tibetan in origin and one of the holiest of Buddhist sites. Gentle chanting and praying fill the air while the local traders sell lamps, cloth and all sorts of fascinating goods in an enchanting kaleidoscope. Then drive to Pashupatinath, the temple of Lord Shiva. Witness daily rites and rituals at holy site and learn about Hindu traditions. Want astrological reading? A famous Nepali astrologer helps you for the same. In the afternoon you explore Patan Durbar Square, one of the most glorious examples of traditional Nepalese architecture, full of centuries old temples and palaces.

Visit Monkey temple- Bhaktapur

Drive to famous Swayambunath Stupa on the hill of Kathmandu Valley where you can see stunning view of mountains and Kathmandu. This temple attracts Buddhists and tourists from round the world. Swayambhunath Stupa is the most ancient and enigmatic of all the holy shrines in Kathmandu valley. Its lofty white dome and glittering golden spire are visible far and wide. Afternoon drive to Bhaktapur and explore medical cities of devotees and the best preserved of all the old cities of Kathmandu Valley. Bhaktapur is known as many name as 'City of Devotees', 'City of Culture' 'Living Heritage' and 'Nepal's Cultural Gem'. Bhaktapur is filled with monuments, most terra-cotta with carved wood columns, palaces and temples with elaborate carvings, gilded roofs, and open courtyards. The city is dotted with pagodas and religious shrines. Visit all old courtyards and chat with local people. Overnight at Bhaktapur.
